9-4443

9-44444

9-44445

REGISTRY

File No. 4444

SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL POLICE.

Special Branch S.3/ ~~[illegible]~~

REPORT

Date January 31. 1933.

Subject (in full) Interviews granted to Chinese Pressmen by the ex-communists Huang Pin (黃平), Yui Fei (余飛) and Hsu Hsi Keng(徐錫根).

Made by D.I. Kuh Pao-hwa. Forwarded by D.S.I. Lucas C.

With reference to the attached cutting from the Shanghai Sunday Times dated January 29, 1933, on the subject of interviews granted to Chinese pressmen by the ex-communist leaders Huang Pin (黃平), Yui Fei (余飛) and Hsu Hsi Keng (徐錫根) at Nanking on January 27, I have to state that Hsu Hsi Keng formed the subject of a report forwarded by the undersigned on January 25.

Regarding the statement that Paul Noulens was formerly secretary to Yui Fei, efforts to verify this have been unsuccessful. Yui Fei, who was arrested by the Chinese Authorities at Pengpu in August last, however, claims that he at one time was the Chairman of the Far Eastern Bureau of the Pan Pacific Trade Union Secretariat of which body Paul Noulens was the secretary.

SD 2510

Kuh Pao-hwa

D. I.

Officer i/c Special Branch.

31.1.33.

SPECIAL INQUIRY

THE SHANGHAI SUNDAY TIMES, JANUARY 29, 1933

Communist Leaders Disavow Cause And Urge Unity

Well-known Chinese "Reds" Give Interview At Nanking Pleading For Nationwide Support Of Kuomintang; Only Way To Fight

NANKING, Jan. 27.—A very rare and significant occasion was provided this afternoon, when three of the highest Communistic leaders granted an interview to Chinese pressmen, in which they expressed very frank [illegible] pleading to form the utmost national unity and to resist Japanese aggression.

They declared it would be a very grave error if Chinese Communists and labour leaders interfered with the Kuomintang's programme for national reconstruction [illegible] to resist munist Party, a delegate to the Communist International in 1928, a member of the Central Supervisory Committee of the World Communist Party, and Chairman of the Shanghai Labour Communist Union.

"Unity

All three of them [illegible] denied the rumours that the [illegible] of relations between China and the Soviet would [illegible] of Communist [illegible] China and the [illegible] Soviet Commun[illegible] They declared the [illegible] was [illegible] the [illegible] party of the [illegible] They further [illegible] that the